Things to Include in the Time Capsule

Include as many of these additional items in your time capsule as you can. Add other things you think of that aren't on the list.

Drop in a recent photo of yourself.

Measure how tall you are with a length of string, twine, or ribbon, and drop in the time capsule.

Tracing of your handprint.

Tracing of your bare foot print.

Include a current newspaper clipping about something happening in your area.

Draw a picture, or include another piece of your handmade art.

A short autobiography.
